BEGINNINGS · WEEK 1

In the Beginning

Genesis 1:1–2:3

Genesis · book 1 of 66

Out of darkness and deep water, God speaks a good and ordered world into being, crowns it with people made in his image, and then rests.

> "In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth."
> Genesis 1:1 (KJV)

Create: To make something new. In Genesis, only God is said to create the world.

TALK ABOUT IT

If you were made in the image of God, what might that mean for how you treat the people around you, and the world you live in?

BEGINNINGS · WEEK 3

Noah and the Flood

Genesis 6–9

Genesis · book 1 of 66

In a world gone wrong, Noah trusts God, builds an ark, and rides out the flood. Afterwards God sets a rainbow in the clouds as the sign of his promise.

> "I do set my bow in the cloud, and it shall be for a token of a covenant between me and the earth."
> Genesis 9:13 (KJV)

Ark: The huge wooden boat God told Noah to build to keep his family and the animals safe.

KINGS · WEEK 23

David and Goliath

1 Samuel 17

1 Samuel · book 9 of 66

For forty days a giant mocks Israel's army. Then a young shepherd arrives with a sling, five smooth stones, and complete trust in the Lord.

> "Then said David to the Philistine, Thou comest to me with a sword, and with a spear, and with a shield: but I come to thee in the name of the LORD of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom thou hast defied."
> 1 Samuel 17:45 (KJV)

What giant are you facing right now, and what would it mean to face it in the name of the Lord?

PARABLES · WEEK 42

The Good Samaritan

Luke 10:25–37

Luke · book 42 of 66

A clever question about who counts as a neighbour gets a story nobody expected: a wounded traveller, two religious men who pass by, and an outsider who stops.

> "And he answering said, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbour as thyself."
> Luke 10:27 (KJV)

Neighbour: Anyone near us who needs our love and help.

TALK ABOUT IT

Who is lying by your road this week, and will you stop?

Noah and the Flood

Genesis 6–9

AIM

Children will understand that God takes wrongdoing seriously, that he rescued Noah and his family, and that God keeps his promises, shown by the rainbow.

MAIN TRUTH

God rescues those who trust him, and he always keeps his promises.

MEMORY VERSE

> "I do set my bow in the cloud, and it shall be for a token of a covenant between me and the earth."
> Genesis 9:13 (KJV)

KEY WORDS

Ark	The huge wooden boat God told Noah to build to keep his family and the animals safe.
Covenant	A binding promise. God promised never again to destroy all life with a flood.
Righteous	Living in a way that is right with God and with others.
Altar	A raised place where people offered worship and sacrifices to God.

BACKGROUND FOR THE TEACHER

Genesis 6–9 describes a world corrupted by violence and a God who is grieved by it. Noah is described as righteous and as one who "walked with God", and the repeated phrase that he did all that God commanded him stresses his obedience. The ark was about 300 cubits long; a cubit was roughly the length of a forearm, about 45 centimetres. After the flood God makes a covenant, a binding promise, not only with Noah but with every living creature, and the rainbow becomes its sign. Flood stories were known elsewhere in the ancient Near East, most famously in the Epic of Gilgamesh, where the hero also releases birds from his boat. The Genesis account differs in its portrait of one just and merciful God who acts for a reason and commits himself to the world's future. Christians differ on questions such as the geographical extent of the flood; this lesson focuses on God's justice, rescue and faithfulness, which all traditions affirm.

Noah and the Flood

Genesis 6–9

TALK ABOUT IT

1. Ages 12–15 Genesis says God's heart was deeply troubled by the violence on earth. What does that tell us about how God feels about wrongdoing? (after part 1)
2. Ages 8–11 How do you think Noah felt building a huge boat on dry land while people watched? (after part 2)
3. Ages 4–7 Who shut the door of the ark? Why do you think that matters? (after part 3)
4. Ages 4–7 What did the dove bring back, and what did it tell Noah? (after part 4)
5. Ages 8–11 What was the first thing Noah did when he came out of the ark? Why do you think he did that? (after part 5)
6. Ages 12–15 Both Gilgamesh and Genesis tell of a flood. What is the biggest difference in how they show God or the gods? (after part 6)

LIVE IT THIS WEEK

Ages 4–7 God kept Noah safe, and God keeps his promises. When you see a rainbow, say "Thank you, God, for keeping your promises."

Ages 8–11 Noah obeyed God even when it looked strange to others. Think of one thing you know is right to do this week, even if friends do not do it, and do it anyway.

Ages 12–15 Noah's faithfulness was steady and long-term, not a single brave moment. Think about what it means to keep trusting God through a long, uncertain season, and which of his promises helps you do that.

Rainbow Promise Chain · 15 minutes

You need: Paper strips in seven rainbow colours, Glue sticks or tape, Markers

1. Give each child several coloured paper strips.
2. On each strip, write or draw one promise of God or one thing to thank God for.
3. Loop the strips into a paper chain in rainbow order.
4. Join everyone's chains together and hang them across the room.
5. Read the memory verse aloud under the rainbow.

Measure the Ark · 10 minutes

You need: A long tape measure or a ball of string, Chalk or cones

1. Explain that a cubit is about the length of a forearm, roughly 45 centimetres.
2. Have each child measure their own forearm and compare.
3. Outside, or along a hallway, mark out 30 metres and explain the ark was about five times longer.
4. Talk about how much faith and work it took Noah to finish it.
